PRESS RELEASE

Centrally located, Fraser Suites Dubai offers over 265 luxurious apartments with breathtaking views that overlook the Arabian Sea and charming city skyline of Dubai, offering guests an oasis of calm complemented by customer-centric design and comfort.

Fraser's Hospitality also continues to achieve sustained success across other properties in the Middle East and Africa, retaining four titles this year. In addition to Fraser Suites Dubai's multiple accolades, Fraser Suites Doha, Fraser Suites Muscat, and Fraser Suites Abuja all secured their positions as Leading Serviced Apartments in their respective countries for the second year running. Fraser Suites Diplomatic Area also reclaimed the title of Bahrain's Leading Serviced Apartments.

In response to the recent achievements at the World Travel Awards, Mr Guus Bakker, Chief Executive Officer for Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA), Fraser's Hospitality, says that it has been deeply rewarding to be recognised for its leading hospitality position in the region, especially given these challenging times due to the impact that COVID-19 has had on the industry.

“These awards are a validation of our teams’ commitment to excellence and their dedication to delivering the best experiences for our guests. Although the market remains subdued as a result of national lockdowns, we remain optimistic and continue to be committed to serving and caring for our guests under our #FraserCares commitment, such as introducing new health and safety initiatives, as their wellbeing remains our utmost priority.”

“As travel gradually resumes around the world, we look forward to welcoming more guests back to our award-winning properties where they can enjoy the ideal home away from home experience,” said Mr Bakker.
